Jake's life is about to get interesting again. It has taken a long time to get permission to go where he believes Dafydd Williams is hiding. Jake is certain that Dafydd is the bomber. But the question 'why?' haunts Jake almost as much as the body count his cousin's attacks have caused.

But before he can get to Dafydd, he has a deal with the Dragons to complete and all hell breaks loose. From that moment on Jake's troubles begin mounting in all directions. Family is a problem, his mistress is in trouble (And Jake makes it worse), the Diabli appear to have formed an alliance, he is nearly killed by plains Indians, and then his dragon Fluffy disappears.

Jake must go to university to finish his quest, but first he must survive the entrance exams and a couple of determined women.

Fun Read

By MikeG2u

This was a very entertaining story. The Author sure likes making this hero into a man slut, but to be fair most any man would be also if given the same opportunities. Can't wait for the next installment.

amazing book

By Amazon Customer

This series has been great. It could do without all of the sex scenes, still loved reading it. Jake is a unique character, as well as an interesting plot.
