Timeless principles

By Jarrett Crusor

Although it's a quick read, this book provides a series of principles to frame how knowledge workers should manage themselves to be effective and successful and how to be an effective executive in general. The questions provided throughout the book provoke thought and help highlight potential blindspots one may have.

Straight forward but leaves you wanting more

By Isit Picasso

I only rated this book 3 stars. There are very good ideas in this book, but I felt that it could use more content.
