Text of the page on St. Peter Claver

By Houstonian

Here is the full text of the Saint's story in question:

"Peter Claver was a Spanish Jesuit. He was sent to Cartagena in South America where he spent forty years in this great slave market of the West Indies, laboring for the salvation of African Negroes. He consecrated himself by vow to the salvation of those ignorant and miserable people, and he called himself "the slave of the slaves." He was their apostle, father, physician, and friend. When news arrived of a slave ship coming into port, Peter would go on board at once and bring comfort to his dear slaves. He fed and clothed them and nursed them with the greatest tenderness in their ugly diseases. It is said that he baptized forty thousand Negro slaves before he went to his reward in 1654. Peter would say, "We must speak to them (the Negroes) with our hands by giving before we try to speak to them with our lips." He organized charitable societies among the Spanish people in Cartagena just as St. Vincent de Paul did in Paris. Prayer: O God, You conferred on St. Peter Claver a remarkable love and patience to help Your enslaved people and bring them to a knowledge of Your Name. Through his intercession, help us to seek equality for all races."

Pretty Educational

By sundaynightrevival

The "Easter Bunny" got this book for my 6-year-old daughter. She's showed interest in Saints, so we thought it was a good gift. One thing I didn't think about was that most of the Saints died in pretty horrible ways (raped, killed, tortured, etc). That's not the books fault, but just a heads up to parents who might want to get this for their kids. As an adult, I love it. It's a quick way to catch up on some Saints you may not know about.
