“Don’t walk away from me.” There was a steel-hard warning in his tone. Despite being smart, sassy, and driven, Ashley finds herself left out in the cold thanks to her fiancé Steve's career. During a disastrous cocktail party, Ashley's finds herself all alone after being ignored by Steve and humiliated by his ice queen colleague Victoria. That is, until the host of the party, billionaire security expert Jason Baine takes notice. He's tall, dark, and handsome. He's also got a killer racquetball game. And he needs Ashley's help. When Jason reveals that Steven has been lying to Ashley and his company, he asks her to play a role in bringing him down. Ashley has no reason to trust Jason, but for some reason, she can't seem to say no to the powerful man, no matter how dangerous his requests become...

So good.

By B-Relevant

5 reasons I love this book:

1. Fantastic writing.
2. Strong plot, great story.
3. Perfect progression of events.
4. More than just sex scenes.
5. The whole story is told in one book. (I'm so tired of getting to the end of a book only to find the story is continued into another book.)

I'm seriously excited about finding this author and I can't wait to read more of her work.

I remember thinking several times while reading, "This is a good book!"

By Pamuel

Grabbed me right away -- lots of action, and enough going on to keep my interest, but not too complicated to follow easily. Strong likeable characters in Ashley and Jason, plus almost comic relief with the very crazy Victoria. Good ending, tying up the loose ends. There are only a few editing issues. I recommend it for a quick escape. Warning, there is graphic sex, but there's an interesting storyline to go with it.

I couldn't put this book down. Great story.

By JODI

I thought this was a fantastic story. I enjoyed the banter between Ashley and Jason. The suspense of Ashley trying to help take Steven and Victoria down kept me on my toes. Can't wait to see what this author writes next!
